Community Notes

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! There are many valuable ministries in our parish that needs your help. No experience needed, we will train. Please consider serving, give us a call at 754-1221. We'll help you find the prefect spot.

THANK YOU - The Parish Social Ministry thank you, the parishioners, for your generosity and support throughout the year. Since Sept., the ministry has purchased uniforms for Provident Heights Elem,(our Waco ISD Partner in Education), donated to Storybook Christmas and Project Gabriel, collected toys for Mission Waco at Christmas and also provided toys for eight families at Provident Heights. Toys and clothing were also purchased for a Project Gabriel family. PSM purchased, cooked and served food for the Homeless Breakfast on the 5th Friday of each month. We also gave a going-away reception for Fr. Augustine and a welcoming reception for Fr. Red. The Easter Project which included food, games and an egg hunt for the parishioners' children and neighborhood children was very successful. Again, thank you and God bless you for helping this ministry.

THANK YOU! St. Louis Catholic School would like to thank everyone who had a part in organizing and supporting this year's gala. This is the school's largest fundraiser of the year and your willingness to support the event helps our school remain successful in many ways. This year's event was a huge success and that is because of our families who are willing to go above and beyond for our students. Many blessings, St. Louis School Staff & Students.

Gospel Meditation

"Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture." Jesus uses the image of a gate today to help us understand how we are to relate to him. He is our path to "pasture," in other words, to the peace and prosperity that we long for. He shows us the way to find all that we need right there before us.

Some people, however, may think that it's better to avoid the trouble of finding the gate and thus choose to enter another way instead. But Jesus says, "Whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber." Although this is all cast in the gentle terms of an analogy about sheep, the message is actually rather stern. Jesus is telling us that if we don't follow him, we are taking the wrong course of action. He is not suggesting a kind of relativistic principle that says, "Following me is one of many good options." No. He is telling us that in order to "have life and have it more abundantly," we must follow the path that goes by way of Christ.

This isn't always the easiest path to follow. It might mean taking the long way around a situation instead of a shortcut. It might mean waiting a little while to get to that pasture instead of hopping the fence and finding it on our own terms. Insisting on using the gate may also make us look like fools to those around us. But to be truly faithful followers of Jesus, we need to trust that his way is the best way. We need to trust that, by letting him lead, we will ultimately end up in the best possible pasture.

In our culture, it is becoming less and less popular to believe in one true religion, but as Christians we know that Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life.
